

MENTAL HEALTH ANTHOLOGY - GENDER DISPARITIES

CALL FOR ARTICLES/CREATIVE WORKS
Deadline: July 15, 2022

HPHR Journal (formerly Harvard Public Health Review) announces a call for submissions for an upcoming book-length anthology about mental health disparities among marginalized groups. This call is for articles and creative works related to people marginalized by their gender, including all genders beyond cisgender men.

We are especially interested in research, evidence-based editorials, photo-essays, creative works (short stories, poetry, short screenplays, visual art, etc.), and/or written reflections leveraging innovative theoretical perspectives and methodologies, as follows:

- Mental health challenges of transgender people and other people who are not cisgender
- Women's higher prevalence of mood disorders and anxiety
- Challenges of intersectional groups (e.g. Black transgender women, Indigenous non-binary or two-spirit people, incarcerated women, and unhoused transgender people)
- Postpartum depression experienced by those who carry babies
- Policy, regulatory, and other solutions to these mental health crises
